Inquisitiveness drives one out of one's comfort zones where one would otherwise remain!

Curiosity is what pushes me forward. It is exciting to jump headlong into the whirlpool of ideas, discover new directions, explore, experiment, adapt to the new challenges and keep the ethos of my imagination thriving.

Curiosity brings with it the wonders of possibilities and the splendor of inspirations along with the thrill of risks lurking at each corner.

Walking on this fine line, which separates the rational from irrational, is nothing short of exhilarating.

It sets me on off on unknown paths and directions – for I am work-in-process !!
